

For Immediate Release
July 18, 2008

Contact: Rep. Mark Pocan
(608) 258-9225

Pocan: Congratulates Jorgensen on Once Again Being Voted “Best Of” Area Elected Officials

Lawmaker Lauded by District Newspaper Readers for Breaking Down Partisan Barriers

MADISON- Rep. Mark Pocan (D-Madison) is pleased to congratulate his colleague, Rep. Andy Jorgensen (D-Fort Atkinson) on being voted the “Best Politician” by readers of newspapers in his district, for the second year in a row. Publications included in the “Best Of the Area” poll were the Daily Jefferson County Union, the Lake Mills Leader, the Cambridge News, and the Deerfield Independent.

Pocan notes, in the article announcing Rep. Jorgensen’s selection, voters credited Jorgensen’s bipartisan efforts to deliver affordable health care choices, ethics reform, and educational and economic opportunities in his district.

Pocan says, “This poll just confirms what I know – that Andy Jorgensen’s first priority in office is serving his friends and neighbors. He’s an independent voice for his district, and they’re glad to have him working for them in the Capitol.”

Newspaper readers also noted Jorgensen’s accessibility, in voting him the “Best Politician.” Jorgensen has held more than 60 listening sessions in his district in his first term, and has participated in countless community programs.

“Andy’s constituent service efforts in his district and in Madison are outstanding,” says Pocan. “Andy’s been working hard – and I feel confident that his constituents will want him to continue to do just that, for years to come.”

###